Compassion UK: Last Sunday we were very fortunate to have Steve Bowring visiting and he gave us an insight into the charity Compassion UK. If you were unable to attend and you would be interested in sponsoring a child you can find all the information at www.compassionuk.org

If you picked up a child's profile last Sunday and wish to sponsor them then you still have one week to sort out the paperwork. After this time the child's profile will be put back on to the main database.
Thank you.

Connect Groups Update: The office is currently putting together an updated list of all LBC's Connect Groups. If you are a leader of a connect group could you please email the group's details and your preferred contact details to the office by 7th November. Thank you.

Please note that any personal contact details or full addresses will not appear on any public noticeboards or church promotional material. The office (with your permission) will only give out this information to people with a genuine interest in your connect group.

Tea Party on the Ridge: Saturday 4th November 2pm-4pm at Square One. Any funds raised will go to St John's Hospice. We are also looking for people to bake cakes for the event, if anyone feels that they could contribute that would be a great help! Thank you.

Lifts for students: Lancaster University students are looking for lifts to Capernwray for their weekend away. Jamie Haxby from the UCCF writes:

'We would need around 10 people to drive across at 6pm on the 10th of November from campus to Capernwray, and then another 10 to drive people back on Sunday the 12th picking them up from Capernwray and taking them back to campus around 2pm. If people are able to help then they just need to contact me to make further arrangements at jhaxby@uccf.org.uk Thanks!'
